Attorneys and Counselors at Law

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FORMER GSA AND USAID GENERAL COUNSEL REJOINS
JACKSON & CAMPBELL, P.C.

Washington, DC; August 13, 2009 – Alan R. Swendiman, former General Counsel of the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) and U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), has rejoined Jackson & Campbell, P.C. as director.

“It is an honor and pleasure to welcome back a colleague who has helped build Jackson & Campbell’s reputation of professionalism and service,” said Rick Bryan, President of the firm. Mr. Swendiman worked for the law firm Douglas, Obear & Campbell which merged with Jackson, Parkinson & Jackson in 1976 to form the current Jackson & Campbell.

As General Counsel of the GSA and USAID, Mr. Swendiman was responsible for all aspects of the agencies’ legal operations and supervised both national and international offices. Mr. Swendiman also served as Special Assistant to the President and Director of the Office of Administration.

Mr. Swendiman spent more than 35 years in the private practice of law with an expertise in general business and commercial law including formation, business entities, contracts, leasing, real estate purchases and sales, government contracts, governance and corporate counseling.

“I’m excited to be back at Jackson & Campbell,” said Mr. Swendiman. “It is a privilege to practice alongside my skilled peers and friends once more.”

Actively involved in the community, Mr. Swendiman serves, or has served, on the boards of The Columbia Lighthouse for the Blind, the Boy Scouts of America, Junior Achievement, Leadership Greater Washington, Providence Hospital Foundation, and Goodwill of Greater Washington. He currently serves as ex-officio member of the Greater Washington Board of Trade’s Board of Directors. Mr. Swendiman earned his J.D. from Georgetown University.
