

David H. Cox Recognized with 2005 Rising Star Award by WMCCAI

January, 2006 – David H. Cox, Co-Chair of the Real Property and Asset Management Practice Group, was recently awarded the 2005 Rising Star Award by Washington Metropolitan Chapter of the Community Associations Institute (WMCCAI). WMCCAI represents industries and community associations throughout Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia, and serves the educational, business and networking needs of local community associations. Nationally, the organization represents residential condominium, cooperative and homeowner associations. Currently, David sits as Co-Chair of the DC Legislative Affairs Committee at WMCCAI, and has presented on proposed legislation affecting community associations, lobby lawmakers, and key staff.

For more information on WMCCAI, or for transcripts on past recorded programs, please visit their website at www.caide.org.

Jackson & Campbell, P.C. is one of the most respected and dynamic law firms in the Washington region. With more than 50 attorneys, and eight Practice Groups in the areas of Real Property and Asset Management, Business Law, Trusts and Estates, Employment Law, General Litigation, Health Law, Liability Insurance Coverage, and Professional Responsibility, J&C attorneys have efficiently served clients' needs throughout the area for over 100 years.