Kiwanis Club of Washington, DC Elects David H. Cox as President

Washington, DC; October 3, 2007 – Jackson & Campbell, P.C. proudly announces the Kiwanis Club of Washington, D.C.'s recent election of David H. Cox as President. David will serve as President from October 1, 2007 to September 30, 2008. The Kiwanis Club is a community service organization that addresses a variety of underserved needs for the youth of the greater Washington, D.C. area. For example, scores of the disabled and disadvantaged children are treated in their Kiwanis Orthopaedic Clinic (located on the grounds of Sibley Hospital) while outstanding D.C. public high school seniors are awarded computers and financial scholarships through the Joe Riley Youth Leadership Scholarship Program. D.C. senior citizen needs are addressed by the Club through the Committee on Enriching the Lives of the Aging.

At Jackson & Campbell, David serves as Vice-President of the firm, Co-Chair in the Real Property & Asset Management Practice Group and is a partner in the Business Law and General Litigation Practice Groups.
