FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

German Gomez Named Co-Chair of Employment Subcommittee of ABA's Insurance Coverage Litigation Committee

Washington, DC; October 9, 2009 – Jackson & Campbell, P.C. is pleased to announce that German Gomez has been selected Co-Chair of the Employment Subcommittee of the American Bar Association's Insurance Coverage Litigation Committee (ICLC) for 2009-2010.

The ICLC has over 2,200 attorney members who represent policyholders and insurers and work with in-house insurance company representatives to address and discuss various insurance coverage issues. The ICLC has formed subcommittees, such as the Employment Subcommittee, to focus on diverse areas of substantive insurance coverage law and procedural aspects of insurance coverage litigation.

German Gomez is a Director at the firm and a member of the Insurance Coverage Litigation and Employment Law Practice Groups. As a member of the Insurance Coverage Group, German defends insurance clients in insurance coverage litigation matters and provides coverage analysis and recommendations for claims noticed by insureds under various primary, umbrella and excess general liability policies as well as first-party property policies. As a member of the Employment Law Practice Group, German counsels clients regarding claims involving employment and labor laws, including discrimination, harassment, ADA, ADEA, FMLA and FLSA related matters.
