John J. Matteo Named Chair of Mo. County Regional Council of United Way

Washington, DC – John J. Matteo, Esq., a Director at the law firm Jackson & Campbell, P.C., was recently named Chair of the Montgomery County Regional Council of the United Way of the National Capital Area (UWNCA) at its Annual Meeting and Awards Reception on June 27, 2006. Having sat on the UWNCA Board for two years, he succeeds Gail Nachman of Trawick & Associates as Chair. UWNCA has long been recognized as a leading charitable organization in the DC area. It facilitates opportunities for the local community to contribute to deserving agencies by addressing the needs of the county and helping the most marginalized of our community. For more information regarding the United Way and to learn about how you can participate, visit www.unitedwaynca.org. John is currently Chair of the Business Law Practice Group at Jackson & Campbell, P.C. and is Partner in the Real Property and Asset Management, Health Law and Employment Law Practice Groups.
