

JACKSON & CAMPBELL, P.C.

Attorneys and Counselors at Law

Maria A. Hall and Christopher P. Ferragamo Spearhead
New Committee of the D.C. Bar

Washington, DC; November 7, 2007 – Jackson & Campbell is pleased to announce that two of its attorneys will spearhead the Tort Law Section of the D.C. Bar's newly-created committee, The Insurance Coverage Law Committee. Maria A. Hall and Christopher P. Ferragamo are Chair and Vice Chair of the Committee, respectively. The Insurance Coverage Law Committee will provide educational seminars and forums to address various areas of insurance coverage law, offering opportunities for members of the D.C. Bar and insurance industry practitioners to interact and develop solid professional relationships with each other. Membership in the Committee is open to all members of the Tort Law Section of the D.C. Bar. To join, go to www.dcbar.org/for_lawyers/sections/tort_law/index.cfm.

At Jackson & Campbell, Maria Hall's practice consists primarily of representing liability insurers in coverage disputes relating to toxic and product liability claims. Maria has been awarded the professional insurance designation, Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter (CPCU). In addition to being a member of the Consulting, Litigation, and Expert Witness Section of the CPCU Society, Maria is active in the DC Chapter of the CPCU Society as Co-Chair of the Education Committee and was elected Director on the Chapter's Board of Directors. She has also served as a CPCU instructor in commercial risk management and insurance.

Christopher Ferragamo represents insurance companies in complex coverage cases arising from toxic tort, environmental, and construction defects matters. Christopher also provides clients with coverage analysis and recommendations regarding primary, umbrella and excess general liability policies, pollution legal liability policies, and directors and officers liability policies. He is a 2007 graduate of the National Institute of Trial Advocacy's ("NITA") "National Session" in Louisville, Colorado, the premier trial advocacy training institute for practicing attorneys.

Both are attorneys in the Liability Insurance Coverage Practice Group at Jackson & Campbell, P.C. in Washington, D.C.
