J&C Director M. Elizabeth Medaglia Assumes Position in the Executive Office of the President

Washington, DC – Jackson & Campbell is proud to announce that M. Elizabeth Medaglia, Director and former Chair of the Firm's Liability Insurance Coverage Practice Group is leaving for a position in the Bush Administration. After being at the Firm for nearly 25 years, on May 14 Liz assumes the position of General Counsel, Office of Administration, Executive Office of the President. At the Executive Office of the President, Liz will join another former J&C Director, Alan R. Swendiman, Special Assistant to the President and Director of the Office of Administration, Executive Office of the President.

Liz joined Jackson & Campbell in 1982, after practicing with the government for ten years as Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and as Associate and then Acting Solicitor of the Federal Labor Relations Authority. At J&C, her practice consisted primarily of representing liability insurers in major coverage disputes relating to environmental, toxic tort, healthcare, product liability, advertising injury, e-commerce, intellectual property, and construction claims.

Everyone at Jackson & Campbell thanks Liz for her contributions to the Firm, as well as to the legal and civic community; and wishes her success at the Executive Office of the President.
