About American College of Trial Lawyers (ACTL)

Created in 1950 to recognize excellence in trial lawyers, the college includes members from every segment of the civil and criminal trial bar in the U.S. and Canada. Its purpose, in addition to identifying and recognizing outstanding trial lawyers, is to improve the standards of trial practice, the administration of justice and the ethics of the profession. The Board of Regents, the governing body of the College, extends the invitation for Fellowship only after careful examination of the nominee's experience, skill, ability and ethical standards.
