Nick McConnell Authors Chapter in 2007 Law Book "Proving and Defending Damage Claims: A Fifty-State Guide"

Washington, DC – All attorneys will soon have access to one resource book enabling them to quickly and accurately evaluate damages arising from medical malpractice, consumer rights, wrongful death, products liability, and other particular causes of action in all fifty states. Proving and Defending Damage Claims: A Fifty-State Guide (Wolters Kluwer/Aspen Publishers © 2007) has comprehensive surveys on recoverable damages, as well as reliable insights on how to draft or defend a complaint and litigate damages issues through settlement or trial. Topics discussed in this unique resource include: Medical Malpractice Statutes, Products Liability, Personal Injury or Wrongful Death, Recovery for Property Loss, Punitive Damages, and much more. Editors of the publication include the Honorable James J. Brown and Wendy Fleishman, Esq.

Nicholas S. McConnell of Jackson & Campbell, P.C. in Washington, D.C. authored the first chapter titled "Medical Malpractice Damages: Causes of Action in Tort and Contract." An elected Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, Mr. McConnell has been recognized by Washingtonian magazine as one of the leading hospital and professional liability defense attorneys in the D.C. region and has been designated by the D.C. Defense Lawyers as The Lawyer of the Year in 2005. He has served as lead defense counsel in hundreds of cases involving claims for medical and hospital malpractice, products and premises liability, and contract and commercial matters. At J&C, Mr. McConnell is Chair of the Health Law and General Litigation practice groups.
