Nick McConnell and Jim Schaller Named Among DC Area's Best Lawyers

Washington, DC – In the October 1st issue of The Washington Post Magazine, Nicholas S. McConnell and James P. Schaller of Jackson & Campbell, P.C. were listed among others as the Washington DC Area's Best Lawyers.

Nick was selected for his expert representation in the Medical Malpractice Law and Personal Injury Litigation practice areas. Previously recognized by Washingtonian magazine as a top trial lawyer, Nick has more than 30 years' experience in health care, corporate and business matters and as a trial attorney. He is an elected Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and past-President of the Bar Association of Washington, DC.

Jim was selected for his leadership in Commercial Litigation, as well as his expertise in Insurance Coverage, Legal Ethics/Professional Responsibility, and Professional Liability matters. He has tried a great variety of cases, including those involving medical malpractice, real estate, commercial, toxic and environmental insurance coverage. Jim is currently President and managing director at Jackson & Campbell. He is also a Fellow of both the American College of Trial Lawyers and the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, and twice chaired the DC Court of Appeals Committee on Unauthorized Practice.
