Jackson & Campbell Elects New Firm President & Members of Executive Committee

Washington, DC – Jackson & Campbell, PC, a Washington law firm serving clients for more than 100 years, is pleased to announce that Richard W. Bryan has been elected President of the firm, and Donald L. Uttrich was elected to serve on the firm's Executive Committee.

Bryan will serve a three year term beginning January 1, 2007. He succeeds a prosperous three year presidency of James P. Schaller. Bryan has been with Jackson & Campbell since 1980 and currently chairs the firm's Liability Insurance Coverage Practice Group. He concentrates his practice in the area of casualty insurance coverage, focusing on environmental and toxic coverage disputes.

Mr. Uttrich will replace Richard S. Kuhl who recently completed two successive terms. John J. Matteo also was elected to serve a second term on the firm's Executive Committee. Uttrich is a partner in the firm's Liability Insurance Coverage Practice Group, and Matteo is chair of the Business Law and Employment Law Practice Groups.
