Attorneys and Counselors at Law

Jackson & Campbell Continues Its Tradition of Giving to the United Way

Washington, DC; November 19, 2007 – Jackson & Campbell is pleased to announce another successful year of fundraising for United Way. Members of the firm, including attorneys and staff, surpassed their initial goal of $12,000 and collectively raised a total of $15,497. This year, Jackson & Campbell's United Way Campaign was titled "Going Green," in an effort to encourage a more socially-responsible attitude towards our environment and others in the greater D.C. community, including raising money for the various charitable organizations that partner with the United Way.

John Matteo, Chair of J&C's Business Law Practice Group and a Board member of the of the United Way of the National Capital Area, said at the firm's closing celebration, "On behalf of those serving on the United Way Board I want to add a special thank you to all at Jackson & Campbell who participated in the fundraising event. Once again J&C has shown its generosity of spirit and its commitment to the community."
