

JACKSON & CAMPBELL, P.C.

Attorneys and Counselors at Law

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jackson & Campbell Welcomes William E. Davis

Washington, DC; August 13, 2009 – Jackson & Campbell is pleased to announce that William E. Davis has joined the Firm's Trusts & Estates practice group as a Director.

Mr. Davis has been recognized as one of the top estate planners in the Washington metropolitan area by The Washingtonian magazine for three consecutive years (2005-2008) and voted one of The Best Lawyers in America by his peers (2006-2008).

Before joining J&C, Mr. Davis was a partner at a general civil practice law firm in Washington, D.C. and concentrated his practice in the areas of trust and estate planning and administration and fiduciary litigation. He also has significant experience in the areas of business succession planning, civil litigation, and small business matters.

Active in the District of Columbia Bar, he is currently a member of the Judicial Evaluation Committee and Editor of the D.C. Estates, Trusts and Probate (ETP) Law Digest, published by the ETP Law Section of the D.C. Bar and a past Chair of the ETP Law Section. Mr. Davis is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) and a member of the State Laws and Fiduciary Litigation Committees of ACTEC. He is also a member of the District of Columbia ACTEC State Committee. In addition, he is a member and past President of the Bar Association of the District of Columbia; a member of the American Bar Association, Section on Real Property, Probate and Trust Law; a member of the Washington, D.C. Estate Planning Council; a member of the Advisory Committee on Probate and Fiduciary Rules of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia; and a member of the Maryland State Bar Association, the Women's Bar Association, the Counsellors, and the Barristers.

Mr. Davis earned his J.D. from the Marshall Wythe School of Law, College of William and Mary.
