J&C Partners with WETA During Membership Pledge Drive

Washington, DC; August 13, 2007 – Jackson & Campbell partnered with long-time friend WETA for its membership pledge drive on August 5, 2007. David Cox, Co-Chair of J&C's Real Property and Asset Management Group, and the firm's Associates volunteered to answer telephones during the featured program, "Armenian Genocide." With J&C's help, WETA raised $25,225 in membership pledges.

Jackson & Campbell has a long history with WETA. Edmund Campbell, a renowned lawyer and one of the firm's founders is the late husband of WETA's late founder, Elizabeth Campbell. Mrs. Campbell's life was featured in WETA's sponsored film "Elizabeth Campbell: A Passion To Teach," which was underwritten by the firm.

"We are proud to be connected with one of D.C.'s finest television and radio stations," said John Matteo, Chair of J&C's Business Law Practice Group.

"Volunteering at WETA's pledge drive is a great way for our firm to continue to serve the tradition established by Mr. Campbell by giving back to the community. We are proud to support WETA's efforts to bring such fine programming to the D.C. region."
