Christopher A. Glaser

Director

Overview

Mr. Glaser is a Director at Jackson & Campbell, P.C. and serves as Chair of the Firm's General Litigation and Trial Practice Group and member of the Firm's Real Estate Practice Group as well as currently serving on the Firm's Executive Committee.

Chris represents a cross-section of industries in the federal and state courts in the Washington Metropolitan Area. As a commercial and business litigator, Chris serves as counsel for small and medium-sized companies and individual business owners handling a broad array of disputes including claims of unfair competition, misappropriation of corporate opportunities and trade secrets matters. He concentrates his real estate practice on title disputes on behalf of title companies, lenders and individual insured property owners as well as construction and property development matters.

As an experienced problem-solver for his clients, Chris identifies areas of potential liability and helps manage his client's exposure to risks and to improve their business.

Chris is a frequent lecturer, most recently teaching a multi-day course on Law and Risk Management for a regional real estate developer with a portfolio in excess of $1.5B. Chris presently serves as the Chair of the Regulations/Rules/Board Procedures Committee of the District of Columbia Bar, having recently served as the Chair of the Judicial Evaluation Committee. For fifteen years, he served on the Fairfax County Industrial Development Authority. Chris has an active pro bono practice, serving as the Chair of the Firm's Pro Bono Committee, in which he focuses on assisting active members of the armed forces and disabled veterans.

Chris is an active member of the bars of the District of Columbia, State of Maryland, Commonwealth of Virginia, and State of Washington as well as the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Virginia, the District of Maryland and the District of Columbia. He is admitted to practice in, and has appeared before, the United States Circuit Courts for the Fourth Circuit, District of Columbia Circuit and the Federal Circuit and the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims. He is admitted to the United States Supreme Court.

Chris attended Pace University School of Law and served on the staff of the "Environmental Law Review." He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Maryland in 1995.
