Ebele Ebonwu

Associate

Overview

Mrs. Ebonwu is an Associate in the Firm's General Litigation and Real Estate Practice Groups. With three years of experience representing companies and closely held businesses in Maryland, she concentrates her practice on general litigation matters, including those arising in real estate, worker's compensation, bankruptcy and financial restructuring.

Before joining Jackson & Campbell, P.C., Ebele honed her talents at a law firm in Baltimore, where she gained experience in additional legal matters such as complex class action litigation, arbitration and mediation. She is skilled at providing high-level guidance to businesses and communicating with clients. Additionally, she dedicates a portion of her time to the Maryland Volunteer Lawyers Service, handling pro-bono cases. Ebele was previously a policy analyst with the National Institutes of Health to meet the specific needs of the AoU Program.

Ebele earned her Bachelor of Arts from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, where she graduated magna cum laude. She earned a Master of Science in Management Information Systems from Bowie State University before earning her J.D. (cum laude) from the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law. Ebele is admitted to practice in the State of Maryland and is a member of the American Bar Association, the National Bar Association and the Maryland State Bar Association. Before practicing law, Ebele worked as an analyst for multiple governmental and private sector entities, focusing on business intelligence and data analytics.
