Overview

Ms. Gaskins is an Associate in the Firm's Trusts & Estates Practice Group, where her focus is on estate planning, trust and estate administration, and tax planning. Robin advises personal representatives and trustees on how to properly navigate the administration of estates and trusts. She also works with clients and their families to create estate plans to achieve their long-term goals, utilizing wills, powers of attorney, advance medical directives and various types of trusts.

Prior joining the Firm, Robin counseled individuals and small business owners regarding their various tax matters. She researched complex tax issues and represented clients before the Internal Revenue Service, directing them through the tax appeal process, negotiating offers in compromise and installment agreements.

Robin has a broad range of experience which she credits to her previous career as a paralegal supporting attorneys in various practice areas to include, commercial civil litigation, personal injury, and condemnation matters before turning her focus to trusts & estates.

Robin is a native of Montgomery County, Maryland, where she currently resides. She is a veteran of the United States Army and in her spare time, she enjoys spending time with her family, hiking with her dogs, and kayaking.
