Ryan A. Patino

Associate

Overview

Mr. Patino is an associate in the Business Law, Real Estate, and General Litigation & Trial Practice Groups. Prior to joining the Firm, Ryan represented purchasers in large scale acquisitions, including assisting a large development company in the purchase of a 60-unit rental community. Further, Ryan has represented management companies in residential and commercial landlord and tenant cases, including obtaining a successful outcome for a large commercial client in a construction defect dispute.

Ryan has worked on large scale real estate transactions, including assisting in the purchase and sale of multi-million-dollar properties. Ryan has advised and worked with corporations, small businesses, and other clients to avoid and resolve issues and disputes arising from commercial real estate transactions. In addition to substantial experience in real estate litigation and transactions, Ryan has significant experience in policy and procedure drafting for residential fair housing compliance, commercial and construction litigation, as well as defending clients in discrimination and business tort cases.

Ryan earned his J.D. from The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law. He earned his Bachelor of Arts from the Florida State University, where he graduated cum laude. Ryan is currently admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Maryland.

When Ryan is not representing his clients, he enjoys playing Soccer and Tennis. He is also an avid golfer.
