General Litigation & Trial Practice

Overview

As a mid-sized regional law firm tracing its roots back into the 1880s, Jackson & Campbell, P.C. has earned a long-standing reputation as one of the premier litigation firms in the Washington, D.C. area, including the state and federal courts of the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia. Indeed, litigation is the common denominator that cuts through virtually all of the Firm's practice areas. Preserving and building on our reputation among the judiciary and in the legal community as vigorous, effective and principled advocates is central to the Firm's collective sense of mission. The Firm's ability to consistently produce first-class legal work, coupled with creativity and integrity, is what gives our clients an unparalleled edge in the litigation arena.

Our General Litigation and Trial Practice Group offers our clients:

- Creative strategic analysis and litigation planning
- Dedication, transparency and integrity in our client relations
- Efficient and cost-effective dispute resolution
- Existing expertise in a wide range of substantive areas
- Prompt reporting of case activity
- Ready access to a national pool of expert witnesses in dozens of fields
- Realistic litigation budget plans, combined with cost-effective control of discovery and trial expenses
- Skillful and articulate advocacy in written briefs, oral arguments and at trial
- Skilled use of technology allowing for the storage, searching, retrieval and dissemination of work product, pleadings, data bases and document collections
- Tailored advice on the options and advantages of arbitration, formal and informal mediation, and adjudication in federal courts, state courts and administrative agencies

The bottom line is that with General Litigation and Trial Practice lawyers, Jackson & Campbell's clients receive absolute commitment to the vigorous advocacy of their interests in all phases of dispute resolution.

Our efforts to assist our clients do not stop there: We take as much pride in assisting clients find solutions that do not involve litigation as we do in successfully litigating their cases. Our lawyers are experienced negotiators who can propose and implement dispute resolution strategies that may lead to a favorable outcome without the need for litigation. We also strive to help our clients modify their internal practices so as to minimize the frequency and risks of litigation by providing counseling services in such areas as problem-solving,
